Since it's a special privilege to be a child guest at a B&B, we ask that parents review the following rules with their children. Both parents and children must sign our agreement. Our prime concern is the safety of children so injury can be avoided.

When parents and children follow our rules, we are assured that all guests at our inn will have a pleasant time. If children do not respect other guests by following our rules, we reserve the right to ask that they and their family leave without reimbursement of room tariff.

Please inform us of children who are still bed wetting so that we may protect our mattresses accordingly.
Mattress damage charges will be assessed at replacement value.

Minor children (18 yrs. or younger) may not be left in your suite or at the inn without having parents present. (No babysitters are allowed at Blue Skies Inn.) The adult left in charge must have a valid driver's license and a car present in our parking lot.

Children must be within eyesight of parent(s) at all times.

No bare feet outdoors.

No jumping on the beds.

No running.

No shouting.

Wash hands after eating.

Tiptoe up and down the stairs indoors.

Stay out of flower beds.
